This Week's Village Missionaries:

Village Missions

Charlie & Rhonda Hargrove
Wishram, WA

Wishram is located on the Columbia River in South Central Washington. Just east of the trees and west of the wheat fields, we are an old railroad town. 324 of us at last count, down from the once thriving 1,500 railroad workers. The bar is our only commerce though we do have a school, post office, fire dept. and the church.

Prayer Requests

- As it has for everyone, the virus has seriously changed the way we do church! We have been worshiping out in the parking lot with drive-in church. We have also begun streaming our service on Facebook live. God has been using this time of uncertainty to reach into the lives of those who otherwise may not have looked His way! We have prayed God to raise up mature Christians to help with the work here. Not only has He worked in the lives of some of the people here, He has also sent other Christians to do the work He has for us! Pray with us as we attempt to reach those who are lost and don't even know it!
- Pray growth would continue in the church both numerically and spiritually!
- Pray for Mark as cancer has forced his early retirement. Pray for Dave as he heals from knee surgery. Pray the virus to go away so we can continue with our 1st ever missions trip planned for September!
- Pray our 'Lost and Found' box to fill up with the souls of individuals from this little community!
