This Week's Village Missionaries:

Village Missions

Thomas & Micah Heotlzer
Blodgett Mills, NY

Blodgett Mills is a small crossroads hamlet of 300 people, located halfway between Binghamton and Syracuse and just off Interstate 81. All we have in the community is a post office, a small plastics recycling facility, and the church. In one direction, we are five minutes from the city of Cortland, but in another we are five minutes away from the farms built into the rolling hills of Central NY.

Prayer Requests

- Wisdom and unity as we rewrite the church constitution and seek what mission and vision God would give us as a church.
- That we would be able to get some younger families in the church, particularly some of the families we have been reaching out to in the community.
- Pray that we would be able to minister to our church and community creatively and effectively with the current COVID-19 restrictions and future uncertainty.
- Micah and I will be having our second child at the end of the year! Please pray for protection for mom and baby and for strength and patience all around as we navigate a new stage of life and parenthood.
