This Week's Village Missionaries:

Village Missions

Larry & Randy Haylett

Juliaetta, ID

Juliaetta got its unique name when the first post-master named the town after his daughters Julia and Etta in 1882. With a population of around 600 and set halfway between Moscow and Lewiston, we are surrounded by fields of wheat, lentils, and garbanzo beans. If one does not farm, then they probably work in Lewiston which is only 25 miles away. Just 3 miles down the road is Kendrick with a population of 300, and the two communities are connected in many ways, such as the area grade school in Juliaetta and the high school in Kendrick. The church is made up of people from both communities.

Prayer Requests

- To kick off the Christmas season, we invite other churches in the area to join us the first Sunday evening after Thanksgiving for a dinner; then we gather together in the sanctuary to sing Christmas carols. It is a great time of rejoicing and celebrating as we start the Christmas season, getting our focus on Jesus' birth. Many in the area have looked forward to this holiday event for the last 15 years, and we need God's direction if we should do it this year or not because of Covid-19.
- Pray we can minister to many in the area who have suffered from various tragedies.

Village Missions Open Field Spotlight

Absecon, NJ: Please pray for Highland Community Church as they patiently wait for a full-time Village Missionary family.

Currently, Village Missions has 18 open fields in the U.S. and 3 open fields in Canada.
